Pacific Stages would like to invite all current and retired teachers in the South Bay area to attend our new intimate theatre at 2041 Rosecrans Avenue, El Segundo. We have several different discounts available. For all performances except Saturday evenings we have a 20% discount for all purchases of two tickets or more per performance. Coupon Code is LEARNSBED. For all performances on the first weekend of each play in our season – Lobby Hero opens on February 4th – there is a 30% discount available for all performances for any number of tickets, including single ticket purchases. That coupon code is PSWKONE. All of these codes are valid online only.

Our theatre is dedicated to the early and lesser known works of the Best American Playwrights and to nurturing the next generation of the same. Our primary focus is on the literary value of the work. Simply – Great Stories. Great Characters. Great Talent. We are modeled on national theatre institutions such as Playwrights Horizons and The Public Theatre in New York, The Goodman and Steppenwolf in Chicago and locally such companies as South Coast Rep, Laguna Playhouse, The Geffen. Our long range plans do include the building of a major regional theatre center right on Rosecrans. Our beginnings, of course, are more modest. But from the outset we have attracted national caliber talent to work with us. Rather than go on and on please visit the website and read our Welcome Letter, the History Page and the Press Release for our first production. I think you will be impressed and will find that this artistic mission is in keeping with a cornerstone of the educational toolbox, the ability to write well. Down the road we do have an educational mission that will be incorporated as our organization grows. Right now our goal is to get the word out that this opportunity exists and to encourage all citizens of the South Bay and extended communities to help us nurture great theatre in our own backyard.
